I am a recent film graduate from the University of Canberra, Australia with a Bachelors in Arts (Film Production). I am stepping forward to offer my skills in precise documentation, pre and post production, scripting and presenting accurate reports that enable structured editing and production. I am highly imaginative with visceral conviction and passion for creating independent films and at the same time with a knack for creating corporate films, commercial productions, documentaries, and short films. I have knowledge of the latest industry standard cameras, video and audio equipment's and editing software's. Filming is my passion and I work with all my zeal and use my skills to bring out the best in an actor, script, and production. Team work, collaboration and amicability remain at the top of my virtues professionally.
